Urgent

SIR,

I have the honour to state that in my proposals about the budget of the Census Department provision for the pay and allowance of Mr. S.Nagappa, my Assistant, has always been made in the head "Salaries". The Comptroller seems, however, to have debited expenditure on the salary of this officer to the head "Establishment." Provision under establishment has thus run short and the Comptroller desires that orders of Government should be obtained regarding funds to meet further charges of establishment. In the circumstances explained above all that is necessary is to debit the salary of Mr.Nagap to the head "Salaries". I request therefore that orders of Governme might be obtained in this respect. This will leave sufficient provision in the allotment for the establishment for the whole year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. Venkatesaiyengar

Census Superintendent.
